Contributing to the Canadian Economy

The future of Canada's economy depends on the next generation of Skilled Trades and STEM professionals. By making youth aware of the available careers, we can help to ensure that our workforce is equipped to meet the demands of tomorrow.

Based On The 2022 RBC Report:

10,000 worker shortage in nationally recognized Red Seal trades is expected over the next 5 years.

According to the Canadian Apprenticeship Forum :

75,000 new apprentices are needed annually for Red Seal trades

Let's Talk Careers introduces students to a variety of STEM and Skilled Trade careers.

Let's Talk Careers empowers students to envision their success in upcoming workforce opportunities.

Increased awareness through Let's Talk Careers paves the way for more skilled trades workers.

Helping to bridge the gap between supply and demand in the skilled trades.
